Special camp 'Unarvu' for NSS volunteers was conducted from 19th December 2014 to 25th December 2014 at Kannur University Campus Mananthavady. 92 volunteers attended the camp. Dr Savio James, Vice Principal of the College presided over the inaugural function and the District Panchayath Standing Committee Chairperson Ms Usha Vijayan inaugurated the seven day Camp. Ward member, center coordinator felicitated in the function.

Everyday volunteers got up at 5.30 am and they had a physical training at 6.15 which is followed by newspaper reading, camp paper presentations, morning message and daily cleaning activities. At 8.00 am breakfast and 8.45 to 1 pm they engaged in cleaning activities, vegetable garden/ornamental garden creation and conducting surveys in association with panchayath etc. At 2pm they joined for the seminars, workshops etc. At 4.30 they had different games which are followed by different literary and cultural activities.

Five training classes were organized for the volunteers and experts from the concerned areas led the training. The major training sessions were Drama training, Nandanpattu training, Self-awareness program, class on astronomy etc.

The presence of senior of volunteers and well-wishers on the camp days gave enthusiasm to the volunteers.
