

NSS Report 2016-17

We have two NSS units no. 33 & 46 that have around 200 hundred students. Mr Bibin Jose and Sr Dr Bindhu K Thomas are the program officers. The units have undertaken a number of programs that help the students to have a socially committed attitude in their education. The volunteers are trained to preserve human values in their life along with the honours and titles that they achieve in their academic tenure. To accomplish this NSS organizes the following activities.

John Bobbit, Vishnu K, Athira P. David, Aleena Benny, Sachin Dineshan, Subin Raj V. B. and Stephin Eldhose were the elected office bearers of the two units. NSS organized various orientation programs and personality development programs for the volunteers. Volunteers actively participated and benefited from the seminars.

Ten NSS volunteers attended the palliative training and personality training programs organized by the University of Kannur.

NSS observed NSS day on 24th September 2016 by distributing message cards and sweets within the campus.

NSS has taken the responsibility of preserving the campus green. It has planted different saplings in and around the campus and protects them. It also extends support to maintain college garden.

NSS regularly do the poster exhibitions in its Notice board which deals with the current issues and problems of the society.

NSS is actively participating in campus cleaning activities along with other clubs and associations in the campus. It also extends strong support to make the campus plastic free.

The annual camp 'DISA' was conducted by our units in the St Antony's U.P. School Kottathara with special focus on empowerment programs.

The two units have conducted various programs like nature camps, quiz competitions, gender equity, legal awareness, etc.

Apart from these the volunteers extend their support to all the programs conducted within the campus and also in social activities. The principal Dr Savio James and the team support the NSS activities wholeheartedly.
